From The Crown

Unto Our most noble and loyal subjects to Vagn and Thora, King and Queen of the Outlands, send these final words.

Good Gentles:

We first wish to congratulate Our Heirs, Their Royal Highnesses Hrothgar and Madigan. In Their stead, We call for all fighters who would enter the next Crown Tournament to submit their letters to Our Heirs by June 1.

We thank the Barony of al-Barran for hosting Us at the recent Middle Eastern Collegium and the Barony of Dragonsspine for their commendable job running Crown Tournament.

Congratulations are due to Master Rhys, whom We inducted into the Order of the Pelican; and to Mistress Drahomira, whom We made a member of the Order of the Laurel.

As Our reign draws to a close, there are many people We wish to thank for their help and support. Lady Gwenlyn Aldwyn provided remarkable service to Our reign, Our predecessors' reign, and to the Kingdom. Sir Bjarni Kenhelm and Sir Artan MacAilin worked as Our arm and legs and smoothed out the rough edges. Ladies Laurel, Fermina, Bronwyn, and Marie cared for and supported Her Majesty; Lords Martino and Berkely were constant companions and saw to all of Her Majesty's needs. We could not ask for finer champions than Sir Jalut Gaston de Navarre and Lord Hrothgar. Finally, We thank the entire Outlands for the tremendous amount of support at Estrella War and during Our entire reign. We especially appreciate the warm and genuine friendships We have developed.

We remain,

Vagn — Vagn

Thora — Thora

From The Crown Prince and Princess

Unto the Good People of the Outlands, Hrothgar and Madigan, Crown Prince and Princess, send greetings and hope that these words find you basking in the warmth of the spring sunshine in these beautiful Outlands.

Good Gentles,

We had a wonderful time at crown tournament and wish to thank the Barony of Dragonsspine and all of those who attended for their hospitality and support. We would like to extend our warmest invitation to our upcoming coronation ceremonies to be held the second weekend in May in the shire of Drygestan. It should be an excellent event and we hope you all can attend. We look forward to a reign of prosperity and unity throughout the Outlands. To this end we anticipate meeting those of the populace that we do not already know and sharing ideas with friends old and new.

In Service to the Outlands,

Hrothgar — Hrothgar

Madigan — Madigan

Unto the Crowns and Coronets of the thirteen Kingdoms, to the nobles and gentles of the Outlands and the Known World, read these words and know that the Baron and Baroness of al-Barran invite all members of the society and their guests to attend the Twenty-Second Grand Outlandish Tournament. This year's Outlandish, which will be the greatest event in the history of the Society, will be held May twenty fifth to May twenty ninth in the beautiful hills east of the Faire Barony of al-Barran.

There will be the time honored traditional tournaments. The will be many and various fencing Lists. There will be heraldic consultation by Lady White Stag, there will be many merchants (we had over thirty last year) for shopping to your hearts content. There will be archery shoots and childrens activities. This year we will be holding arts and sciencies classes organized by Mistress Sarah de Montgomerie as well as displays of artists from the known world. There will be bardic performances, games, laughter, and fun. By the command of the Baron and Baroness of al-Barran each member will be allowed to bring only two non-member guests.

The daytime is hot so bring water and sunscreen and hats. The nights can be cold so plan for cooler temperatures. There is some deadwood on site, but plan on bringing your own firewood if you want a campfire as we will not cut or allow to be cut any standing trees on site. We will require a minimum of one fire extinguisher for every campfire and a maximum of one campfire per encampment. There will also be a fire marshall this year who will inspect all fires to make sure they are safe. We will have no repeats of last year's fire episode.

Pets are welcome but need to be caged or leashed. We are expecting quite a few horses on site throughout the weekend. This part of the country is a plague area so please take appropriate steps to protest your own and your pet's health.

Outlandish Children's Activities: There will be organized children's activities at Outlandish this year, they are being coordinated by Genvieve Mac Talleach. Donations of supplies and materials are highly encouraged, volunteers are actively solicited. The children's activities site will be open from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm Sat, Sun, and Mon. Parents are very strongly urged to contact Genvieve ASAP and let her know how many children they are bringing , how old they are, and their children's interests. Parents are encouraged to help out with their time and wisdom. A schedule of children's events will be available at the Gate.

We will also allow pre-registration until May 14, 1995. Pre-registration will be allowed this year to help us cut down time at the gate. Please fill out the form and send a SASE to the pre-registration coordinator listed at the bottom of the article.

Important Note: If you are a minor planning to attend Outlandish without your legal guardian or if you are planning to bring minors who are not your legal dependants, you must fill out and notorize a parental and a medical consent form as well as a minor's waiver. These forms can be obtained from the event coordinator or the registration coordinator.

The Second Grand Outlandish Medieval Tournament

On Sunday Morning, the 28th of May, a Most Noble Tournment will be held in the Barony of Al-Barran at the Glorius Grand Outlandish! All Royal Peers, Knights, Masters of Arms, Peers, Defenders of the Stag's Blood, squires and worthy men at arms are invited to fight in a Grand Melee accompanied by Retainers.

To carry off the Melee (and impress the judges), a standard banner with your arms, and tabards for your retainers, are worthy accotroments.

Rules: 1) You are allowed retainers based on rank: His Majesty and Her Majesty may have 5 retainers; Dukes and Duchesses may have 4; Counts and Countesses may have 3; Peers may have 2; and Defenders of the Stags Blood may have 1 retainer. 2) Initially, Retainers are defenders only, they may not strike blows. It is the prowess of the contender that strikes the blows. 3) Judging will occur, and it is NOT how well you fight, it is how well you LOOK in fighting, and Presentation of you and your entourage. 4) Entourages are encouraged! 5) The Prizes will be for chivalry, fighting, presentation. 6) Non-fighting Peers may appoint one of their retainers to fight in their stead as the striker. For example, a Laurel or Countess may choose one of their retainers as the striker, reducing the number of defenders by one. 7) This is a Grand Melee, and sides will be chosen at the end of Presentations! 8) At the end of the three scenarios, Individual challenges will be made. 9) Retainers may not be stacked (i.e. a Count cannot be a retainer for a Duke and still keep his retainers). 10) Six foot poles are the maximum length on weapons allowed.

Artisans! Make Deals for your service in the creation of the livery! Heralds! Make "arrangements" for your servcies as you announce the participants (who may make a deal with you!)

Still, we request your help. If you're interested in making a small bit of history, please call Jalut (303) 665-7796, or send him a letter at 480 West Street, Louisville, CO 80027.

The positions are Warlord (heavy weapons), Defender (fence), Ranger (target archery), and Captain (combat archery). The competitions for Warlord and Ranger will be held on Saturday and Defender and Captain tournaments will be held on Sunday. Historicon Demo

June 3-4

Meet mystery writers who recreate the SCA's time period(s) at Historicon, a convention of historical mystery writers and fans, on June 3-4 on the Chautauqua Grounds in Boulder, Colorado (Caer Galen). To help add atmosphere and authenticity, the SCA and other organizations have been invited to participate. The Shire of Caer Galen is sponsoring the SCA's part in this event.

This interactive conference will kick off the 1995 Chautauqua series. Organized by the Rue Morgue Mystery Book Store, the goal is to raise money to winterize Chautauqua's buildings, introduce people to one of the two remaining Chautauquas in the world, and publicize historical mysteries.

While some attending writers are concerned with time periods beyond the SCA's borders (the conference covers ancient Egypt through 1913), the following guests are entrenched in our period(s) (Other guests will be announced at a later date):

Ancient Egypt:	Lynda Robinson
Roman:	Lindsey Davis, Steven Saylor
French Medieval:	Sharan Newman
Elizabethan:	Edward Marston, Leonard Tourney
17th century Japan:	Laura Rowland

We will need heavy weapons, fencing, and dancing demos; costume shows (wear your best!); and art displays. Activities will cover mostly Saturday (day and night) and Sunday. Schedules will be announced as soon as the information is available.

Directions and site information: The Chautauqua Grounds are at the base of the foothills in Boulder. They include a large park, hiking trails, a dining hall, an auditorium, and many other buildings. There are some picnic tables and grills (use will depend on fire danger), there are some trees for shade, and there are restrooms and running water inside some of the buildings.

From the south: Take US 36 to the Baseline exit. Turn left (west — towards the foothills). Cross Broadway (major intersection/light) and continue west. Pass the lights on 20th and 17th as you drive uphill. Immediately after 9th Street (on your right), look for the entrance to Chautauqua on the left (there are signs for the park). The entrance is approximately 1.1 miles from Baseline and Broadway.

From the north: Take your best route to Boulder. If you don't know one, try I-25 south to Highway 52. Turn right (west) on Highway 52. Take it all the way to the Diagonal Highway (119). Stay on the left; as you reach Boulder, the Diagonal turns into the Foothills Parkway (147). Take that to Baseline and turn right (west). You will pass US 6. Follow the "from the south" directions from this point.

Please call Mistress Ariel (Ellen Rawson) at (303) 786-9107 for more information.

Later in the afternoon, "pony rides" will be allowed for all to enjoy our equine companions. For minors to ride the horses, a parent or legal guardian must be present.

For those wishing to bring their horse(s), there will be stalls available on site for overnight boarding the evenings of the 5th and 5th. These can be arranged for $15.00 per night. Banner Tourney

Good gentles of the Outlands, Harken. The Shire of Windkeep invites all to attend their annual Banner Tourney to be held on Saturday, June 24, 1995 from 10am until 3pm. Valiant fighters will contest on the field with an Outlands Banner as the prize for the most flamboyant and chivalrous fighter in the lists (there will probably be a prize for the winner too, but SHOWMANSHIP is what counts.) If there is enough interest, there will also be a fencing list, with the same entrance requirements. There will also be prizes for best death, best bereavement, as well as a contest for the best banner. Please note that in order to enter the list you must present a banner to the Mistress of the Lists along with the normal administrivia. The banner doesn't have to be your own. The banner can display personal arms, historical arms, or be just plain decorative, HERALDRY COUNTS. It has been suggested that you bribe someone to carry your banner, and announce yourself, at the beginning of each encounter.

This tournament is held in conjunction with Cheyenne SUPERDAYS 95 which is an entertainment, demonstration and craft fair held by the City of Cheyenne. It routinely draws 20,000 visitors each year. We ask all gentles to wear their finest tourney gar, bring their pavilions and drums, and show off the best of what our Society has to offer. There will be an Arts and Sciences Pavilion with both a touchie feelie area and a display only area.

Tourney Site: The grassy area adjacent to the Cheyenne Botanical Gardens in Lions Park. Take the Central Avenue exit from I-25 and follow the signs to SUPERDAYS. From the White Stag Principal Herald

Mistress Fiachra ni Ciardhubhain

I would like to thank the gentlemen that helped haul the White Stag Library to and fro at Crown Tourney. I greatly appreciated the help! And, thanks also to those who took care of the field heraldry for me on both days, and especially on Sunday!

I'll be running a consultation table at Grand Outlandish, and I will be needing heralds willing to spend some time at the table to help and I would also like to ask the artisans of the Kingdom to spare an hour or two of their time at the table assisti ng folks with their device submissions.

And remember, The Known World Heraldic and Scribal Symposium in June, Some of the classes will be: Russian Onomastics, Name documentation, basic and advanced heraldry, etc. If you would like to see a specific subject taught or would like to teach one , please let me know!

The following submissions went out on the March 95 External Letter of Intent, which should be considered by Lord Laurel at his July meeting, and I should be able to notify submitters by mid-August 1995. From the Seneschal

Baron Lambert de Sur

Good Gentles,

All seneschals, autocrats, and potential autocrats, please note: the Non-Member Surcharge (NMS) is still in effect. A three dollar surcharge for all non-SCA members attending events for which a fee is charged must be sent to the SCA Corporate office within ten days of the event. The SCA is heavily dependent on these funds to meet its financial requirements for the coming year.

To help the Kingdoms monitor their compliance with this policy, we are now receiving quarterly summaries of the NMS submissions by event. It was disturbing to be told that no Outlands fees were received for events between early January and mid-March. During this time, there were several midwinters and other events. The NMS policy is taken as seriously as any other SCA event policy; failure to comply can result in SCA sanction being withdrawn for future group activities and problems for the Outlands.

Please help me get the Outlands back on track! If your group neglected to submit the NMS fees for a past event, send them now. If exact numbers are unavailable, make a good faith estimate, e.g., assume one quarter of the attendees were non-members. For future events, treat the NMS like any other bill, pay it immediately without waiting for a final event accounting. For all events on the Kingdom calendar, please send me a note if (by some twist of fate) no non-members attended. This will help me defend our compliance with the NMS policy and avoid problems for the Kingdom. Failure to submit the NMS fees or reports will result in restrictions on future group events.

On a happier note, the summer tourney and camping season is upon us. New Pennsic land grab procedures are in effect which necessitate some longer range planning—look for the notice elsewhere in this issue. Local inter-Kingdom events this summer will include a Friendship Event with Artemisia at the end of July in Dael Beorht (Montrose, CO) and an Outlands-Calontir event in conjunction with Valor Tourney over Labor Day weekend in the Barony of Vatavia (Wichita, KS). The summer also promises a larger than normal number of new movies on medieval topics. A recent newspaper article listed four (Rob Roy, Braveheart, First Knight, and Dragonheart) with a fifth (Crusade) in production. Be prepared for an influx of new members.

Lambert

From the Earl Marshal

Sir Jalut Gaston de Navarre

Greetings unto all fighters, archers, and their supporters in our glorious Outlands! I have a few discussion topics that I would like to present to you. I ask that if you have any opinion or response, send me a letter. Those topics include blow strength after deflection, combat archery, and the forthcoming rewrite of the Outland's Heavy Weapon Rules.

Right now in our Kingdom, many fighters are making the determination that if they intercept a blow with their shield, sword, or madu but it continues on to an acceptable target, the blow cannot be counted as Good, even if the power delivered to the target is of reasonable force. I wish to put forth the argument that, "if a blow is intercepted by a sword, shield or madu, but the blow continues on to an acceptable target with acceptable force, the blow will be considered good." This is how I fight, and I want to know whether this is acceptable to the fighters of The Outlands. I would like to include this in the re-write of the Heavy Rules, or if not included in those Rules, accepted as appropriate behaviour for the fighters of The Outlands..

Next, I have had discussions with many fighters who participate in combat archery, and most of the topics have centered around the usability of the 10 foot rule, and whether a combat archer must be authorized in a basic weapons form. First, a combat archer must be authorized in a basic weapons form before authorizing as a combat archer. Thus, the moment a combat archer/fighter steps on the field, they understand that they may be hit by an opposing fighter and are prepared to die and cover themselves appropriately. Next, the ten foot rule did not work well at Estrella. I propose that a combat archer can make the determination to "fight, run, or die!" If a combat archer remains standing as an opponent closes, the archer is at that point fair game. If the combat archer falls to the ground, the opponent then has the opportunity to call, "Dead on the ground, my lord," with the archer dead at that point, or the archer accepts death without the proclamation (this is open for discussion). Finally, the archer can still run away if not hit by an opponent or has not fallen to the ground. Opinions?

With the above topics in mind and with the reworking of the marshallate currently in progress, a re-write of The Outlands' Heavy Rules is a priority. We have many rules which are ignored,. such as our two pound per square foot of shield rule. Thus a rewrite is paramount. If you have further topics to be considered, write me as soon as you can.

May each of your shots be acknowledged without question.

In service to the Outlands,

Jalut

From the Chronicler

Lord Alwyn of Kittisford

I wish to ask your pardon for the lateness of this issue. Personal problems caused a great disruption in my normal publishing schedule, but they should not recur. If you are a third class subscriber, and did not receive this by May 7th or so, feel free to give me a call. This month, at least, it's not the fault of the post office.

One upshot of my recent trials is that my email address and fax phone number changed unexpectedly. If you sent me something and it did not appear in this issue, please re-send it to my new address - it probably got lost.

I wish to extend my most heartfelt thanks to the Barony of Dragonsspine for their most generous donation of the proceeds from Crown Tournament. Their very large contribution insures that The Outlandish Herald should not require more monetary support this year. Thank you all!

I remain,

Alwyn

From the Minister of Arts & Sciences

Mistress Liobsynde Belhringere

The College of Saint Golias hosted the Kingdom Arts and Sciences Collegium March 11th and 12th. Approximately 80 people attended the event. Some of the attendees were from as far away as Colorado Springs (~450 miles). Twenty-one classes were held on Saturday, five classes on Sunday.

Despite some last minute class changes and cancellations, the event went well. Some of the classes held included "Ropas and Kirtles", "Organizing Court", "Costume and Morality", and "Making and Documenting Period Miniatures".

I would like to thank the following individuals: Lord Kestrel, the autocrat, and Mistress Richenza le Wydu, the feast organizer, for their hard work and valiant efforts, as well as the hard working members of Saint Golias. This group excels in working together and working with a kingdom officer to accomplish the goal of putting on an event. I can't say enough about how wonderful this group is. THANK YOU !!!

I would also like to thank the last minute (literally!) substitutes Mistress Kathryn of Iveragh and Master Tomas Frasier. They were gracious and filled in for some last minute cancellations.

I would like to thank the Crown and Kingdom Seneschal for their support of a Kingdom Arts and Sciences event. I would also like to thank the Corporate MOAS for her support and help.

Thank you to the following instructors (in no particular order): Mistress Berengaria, Countess Kathryn of Iveragh Mistress Monika von Zell, Mistress Elaina de Sinestre, Mistress Richenza le Wydu, Master Kay Delafleur, Master Tomas Frasier, Lady Clarice D'Ouessant, Lady Susanna Jewel, Lady Aurelia D'Ouessant, Lord Tore au Uddevalla, Lady Talina the Gypsy, Lord Torcail, Lord Wolfgang, Lady Ari Ushnaugh, and Lord Karl von Schattenburg.

Finally, thank you to those who attended this event.

From the Chirurgeon

Master Rhys Afalwin

Winter has shaken off its mantle of white and Spring is in the air. With spring comes camping events and a whole list of hazards that modern medieval man and woman has to consider. I hope that autocrats will call me if they want a chirurgeon in attendence at their camping events this summer. It is my greater hope that sufficient chirurgeons are available to attend. When chirurgeons are not able to be at events there are still things that the autocrat can do to help ensure a safe time is had by all.

The first thing to remember is that minor injuries and illnesses can be taken to a medical facility or taken home without any rush necessary. The autocrat's concern should be for serious injuries or illnesses. Make sure that a phone is available, and that responsible people have the numbers to the nearest emergency response unit. If the available phone is going to be a cellular, make sure that there is phone service at the site. The time saved having a telephone available may make the difference.

Another important consideration is that there are often medically trained and qualified people at events who are not chirurgeons. Autocrats will be ahead of the game if they have a sign in list at the troll booth for medically certified people to provide their personal information; just in case of a real emergency (Don't bother them unless it is a real emergency).

Additionally, people who have known medical conditions that might cause them to become incapacitated should leave this information at the troll booth. This information will be invaluable to emergency response personnel should the person be unable to provide it. A little planning ahead will help us to have a safe and eventful summer.

By the way if you are interested in becoming a chirurgeon, contact me. The more chirurgeons we have the better the chirurgeonate can serve the Outlands.
